RMAA's Gravity Defied Theatre takes you back to the '80s in 'Totally Electric' this April, May

Denver CO (March 25) – Gravity Defied Theatre will present Jonathan Van Dyke's Totally Electric at the Aurora Fox Arts Center's Studio Theatre on April 26, 29, 30 and May 1, 3, 6 at 7:30 p.m. and April 25, May 1, 2, and 9 at 4:00 p.m. This will be Gravity Defied Theatre's Annual Fundraiser Production.

Tickets are $18 adult, $15 for seniors (over 55) and students (13 to 21). Tickets for Totally Electric and all RMAA events may be purchased at Wild Flowers at 12th Avenue and Madison in Denver, at Poor Richard's Bookstore at 320 N. Tejon Street in Colorado Springs, and at the Rocky Mountain Arts Association Web site www.rmarts.org. Tickets will be available at the door on the day of the performance at Aurora Fox Arts Center.

Totally Electric is the rockin' good time that will have you reminiscing about your own high school days — be they two or twenty years ago — before the night is over. Come relive the days of Day-Glo, Jordache, and jelly shoes with the music that audiences can't stop talking about!

Totally Electric begins at the high school reunion for the West Lake High School Class of 1989. When the award-winning West Lake show choir "The Syncopated Sensations" are unable to perform, the musical flashes back to the 1980s and the Sensations' last weeks of high school. Through their determination, talent, and friendship — and with the help of some new friends — the Sensations will leave their mark on West Lake forever.

The cast of Totally Electric include six students at Denver School of the Arts and one from Cherry Creek High. Denver School of the Arts students Wyatt Manobla and Madison Kitchen were both last seen in You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, as was cast member Erin Hassell. Sarah Harmon, also a DSA student, was in GDT's inaugural production, bare: the musical.

Gravity Defied Theatre Director Keith Rabin helped produce the original production of Totally Electric at the New York City's Duplex and originated the role of Jessie Newton-John. Choreographer Danny Harrigan appeared as the title role in January's GDT production of You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown.

Music director Nick Roseth is a recent graduate of Susquehanna University in music education and teaches band and orchestra at Erie Middle School in Erie, Colorado. He is a member of Colorado Music Educators Association and MENC, the national association for music education.
