Denver Gay Men's Chorus auditions in September!

Denver CO (July 22) — Denver Gay Men's Chorus (DGMC) will audition new members during the week of September 12, as well as returning members who have been gone for more than two consecutive concerts.

Auditionees will be invited to "Audition Us" for the first half of our September 12 Rehearsal; you must have contacted DGMC prior to the September 12 Rehearsal.

Auditions usually consist of your singing something familiar, like "America" (AKA "God Save the Queen") or "You Are My Sunshine" (AKA "Sie sind mein Sonnenschein"), checking your vocal range, and testing your note-matching abilities.

The Chorus regularly rehearses Sunday evenings at Christ Church United Methodist at 690 Colorado Boulevard (Colorado Boulevard and Seventh Avenue) from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Our concert calendar for the year has not yet been announced, but DGMC usually does three major concerts in our performance year, and shorter "outreach" performances monthly.

Contact DGMC by e-mail at info@rmarts.org; put "DGMC Audition" as your subject line and please provide an evening phone number where you may be reached. DGMC also needs support members, who do not need to audition; put "DGMC Support" as your subject line.

If you are unfamiliar with DGMC's repertoire, you may see selections from DGMC's performances at Rocky Mountain Arts Association's YouTube channel, <http://www.youtube.com/user/RockyMtnArtsAssn>.

DGMC will remain on summer break until September 12, so don't come to Christ Church looking for us!
