Rocky Mountain Arts Association announces concert season schedule, ticket discounts

Denver CO (October 20) – Rocky Mountain Arts Association announced its season schedule at the October 16 Denver Gay Men’s Chorus Audience Appreciation Concert at Montview Boulevard Presbyterian Church. Any combination of their three choruses’ concerts will let patrons receive up to a 20% discount in ticket prices. (RMAA’s fourth chorus, Mosaic Youth Chorus, is presenting two free concerts this season.)

Discounts of up to 20% are available online at <http://www.rmarts.org> for purchases of multiple concerts or productions at one time for the Denver Gay Men’s Chorus, Denver Women’s Chorus, and Out Loud: The Colorado Springs Men’s Chorus.

Pre-purchase, multiple productions, any combination of choruses, and receive the following discounts: for two productions, 10% discount; for three productions, 15% discount; for four or more productions, 20% discount. Tickets to all Rocky Mountain Arts Association events can be purchased online at <http://www.rmarts.org> and usually at a discount from at-the-door prices. Tickets are now on sale for all shows through June 2010.
